

Matilda Penna

Please, we are responsible for what happens to our planet and moving on with this project will not only affect those living near it but everyone else as well. If this is accepted by the government, let them know it is their responsibility for participating so greatly in the damage of our beautiful planet that we call home.