

Conner Griswold

Project Jupiter will dangerously strain our already troubled water system, with gas power plants potentially consuming nearly 1 million gallons per day, emitting over 14 million tons of greenhouse gases annually, more than Albuquerque and Las Cruces combined. We cannot afford to gamble our finite water and clean air on this project.