

Claire Skorheim

Please don't open up New Mexico is already struggling for water and natural resources, our air quality is declining every day and the heat is going up. Data centers are not need for new Mexico I oppose this business from opening in New Mexico