

Lily Meraz

There should be a public meeting held in person so the community can join together and discuss openly their concerns, comments, and questions.