

MARCIA HALES

This is horrible idea. We already live in water challenged state and the byproducts don't do anything for the community. This cannot go forward for the health of our state and next generations.