

Emil Krasich

I am strongly opposed to the environmental and economic impacts of project Jupiter. Our state already has a water problem and we have no need of yet another data center consuming our life-needed water, increasing already record temperatures, polluting the air, emitting extensive greenhouse gases, and causing soaring energy prices.