

anonymous anonymous

The public should be given 60 more days to review and comment on the the air quality permit so members can participate. Peoples families and communities are far more important than this is, especially young or elderly residents who have to breath in all the pollution.