

Damon luckey

I highly oppose this plan to have another data center here. There is countless examples of data centers negative impacts to the environment. Energy and water demands would decimate local communities