

Cat Guzman

This is contributing to the active destruction of the environment in which we live! Other data centers are proven to be poisoning the air, water, and animals. This is targeting not only low income areas but up to middle class. Which are the highest tax payers. To complete this project is to be against mankind and our future.