

Elijah Lewis

I am writing to express my voice and feeling new Mexico and surrounding states have been struggling with water shortage and fresh clean resourceful water how would this data center effect our water supply and the future generation we can't simply keep thinking of the now and us our previous generations have done it and look where it got us, how does this factory benefit our state and water and environment

Sincerely,
Elijah lewis