

Rylee Stevens

Ai is a waste of resources. We have lived without it for so long why can't we just keep living without it? We're sacrificing basic survival necessities for our own time saving purposes. Through some research I have learned that this company often dumps hazardous waste in different water areas.