

Pierce Jones

This can effect so many town's climate and the over wellbeing of our earth, not to mention the wildlife that lives naturally nearby. This would be a climate DISASTER! It can actively cause the planet to get hotter, which causes much more extreme heated waves and do so much damage to crops and produce, not to mention the fact that this data center would effect the air around the area, and could be potentially hazardous, take our please into consideration.