

Anonymous Anonymous

We don't need anymore of these data centers, they're ruining everything for everyone and only serve to make life for the average citizen a hellscape. We need clean water to drink and affordable, well, everything. AI centers only harm us and the Earth, without helping anyone. Please let us continue to own our lands and live our lives without massive data centers blocking out the sky and drying up the rivers.