

Carson R

Data centers are currently one of the greatest threats to our air quality and the tactic used to try to falsify support for this project have been vile. Lying and deceiving people to get signatures shows how unpopular this project is. No one wants data centers in the land of enchantment