

Madolin Lamb

Our world is on a fast track to the end. We have limited resources as is and this is disgusting. You take water from animals and trees that we need to survive. Soon we will run out of usable oxygen because companies think money is more important than their own lives along with the trillions of people living on planet earth. Stop this genocide.