

Lisa Verdi

I am writing to NOT support the data center. I could support it if you included in written legal terms that the community can destroy the data center if it consumes too much fuel/energy and water.

Also, Oracle has to supply the tractors and sledgehammers for the destruction. Now I am excited!

Or maybe every resident of Dona Ana county gets 5000k per year the data center operates. NOW these are terms I would like to see.