

Justin River

New Mexico, is a desert, as it is we have Zero water and they want to take away what little water we have? Yes, I understand it creates jobs, but in the long run the rest of the dry state has to suffer because we have extra land? Please, do not take away our resources to live and it's bad enough we are struggling just to survive. Please hear us. Thank you.