

Laura Romero

I am writing to express my support for Project Jupiter, which I believe offers significant benefits for our community. In particular, I believe the project will provide resources to youth in the state and may help youths who may be struggling with substance abuse.