

Molly Booker

I soundly and completely oppose the construction of the data center referred to as "Project Jupiter." Under the current constitution plans, and due to litigation in other states where other data centers have caused irreparable harm to water systems, and all estimates for the consumption of public utilities for this single business, I think all permits associated with this proposal should be denied.