

Mavi W

As a New Mexican resident, we barely have enough water as it is. An AI center would completely diminish the little sources of water we can even use in New Mexico. This is a desert, and any jobs that would be brought from this center would be unsustainable and replaced by AI itself shortly. Leave our desert alone, please don't take whatever water we have left.