

beth gutelius

I urge the NMED to REJECT this application as it endangers New Mexico's air and water resources. The permit would allow greenhouse emissions that top those of NM's largest cities combined: 13 million tons of greenhouse gas emissions annually. That is an unacceptable risk to our communities.