

Alyssa lucero

I do not want project Jupiter or any other data center to be built in new Mexico. I am concerned what this would do to our environment and to our communities. We are already running low on water, already lack local jobs, and already are facing climate crisis. We do not need an ai data center to worsen this.