

Rafael Reyes

I am writing to express my disapproval with the AI data center. AI data centers will not improve life for New Mexicans in the slightest. From damages to the environment, putting people out of jobs, excess water use, it is clear the technology isn't in the hands of the people. It is in the hands of corporations who want nothing more than to give us less.