

Hayley Graziano

Morally and practically speaking, I am vehemently opposed to the proposed construction. It will negatively affect the entirety of New Mexico and, even more so, communities nearby. It will use water that is already limited, and their claims that it wont are dishonest and misleading. The sound pollution created by such a building is absurdly loud and will affect residents and wildlife alike. We must protect our resources and the ecosystem we are lucky enough to be keepers of.