

Giazul Ruiz

I dont think AI data centers should be built in the state at all. We already have a limited amount of water and this data ce ter will make it worse. A computer does not have more rights to our water than the people living here. New Mexico is already moslty desert, so why here? This will only cuase major damage to local communities.