

Carla Waldron

As a New Mexico resident I would like to voice my opposition to any resources being used for the development of Project Jupiter.

As our population continues to grow and our resources dwindle, allowing this project to proceed is reckless and will ultimately further deplete New Mexico's precious natural resources. There are no long term benefits to this project other than to wealthy outsiders.