

Clinton Christison

In C NM, this endeavor is not in the best interest of the consumers of the power grid. This system will cause many to suffer power surges, brown and blackouts and probably drive the cost of electric and water power to surge above reasonable and affordable levels. I disagree with this move.