

Dandelion Springer

absolutely not. our state already struggles for enough water and decent air quality, especially in these regions. we cannot afford to jeopardize our environment to further the goals of a company who doesn't care about the consequences of its actions, for a product that is wholly unnecessary and frivolous.

we do not need or want you here.