

Carol Anda

Taking scarce resources such as water to build a project that will hurt the community and the environment is something New Mexicans do not want. Please listen to your community, please think about the consequences this project will have on our resources. Do not support this project