

Daniel Heigher

Many New Mexicans and I will stand up against this data center! It's not good for anybody but corporations and institutions to continue exploiting the people and lands of New Mexico. The people running this project are being dishonest and cannot be trusted to protect the environment, and the propaganda ads will not change our minds.