

Antonio Aragon

I live in Colorado and right in my county we drained 3 lakes in order to provide water to the farms we don't need no data center that is gonna take water ai data center are horrible and should no exist and to be taking water from living people and animals for fake images and people or are not smart enough to pass school