

Olyvia Weaver

I'm tired of corporations filling America with data centers we don't need. We do not need ai. We do not need data centers. Our atmosphere cannot handle the carbon dioxide those would be producing. Our planet cannot handle the rising climate temperatures from the heat data centers release. We cannot and will not survive the droughts that data centers cause. This needs to stop and I refuse to not do anything.