

Rachel Ridgeway

It has been proven in other states how noisy, wasteful (water/energy), and toxic data centers are for the environment. We won't be able to breathe or drink the money that will be made from the construction and operation of project Jupiter. Short term, small job growth is not a good enough reason to sacrifice our state's water, health, and environmental longevity.