

Jesse Ritchey

This project will hurt the community and should not be implemented. It is harmful and will take valuable resources from the people they truly need them. This project will use vital water and energy resources that should be used elsewhere.