

C Caroline

I strongly oppose construction of this data center. The devastating environmental impacts vastly outweigh any benefits. In a place where water and air quality are already major concerns, this data center only harms our community more.