

Angelina Grine

I am writing to express my opposition to project Jupiter which by its nature will pollute New Mexicos resources like air, water, noise, etc. lots of residents are against the building of a data center but have not been given an adequate opportunity to ask questions and voice their concerns. I am against project Jupiter and large companies like Oracle bulldozing rural communities and poor states with false promises like jobs and economic opportunity.