

Leroy Levine

I strongly feel that any water utilization needs to be strictly controlled in a state that has severely overutilized the amount of water available to us all... something of this size should only ever be powered with a green source of energy so is to not impact the environment and if truth be told, I believe the data center is not necessary and should not be installed or built at all.