

Lucas Tiede

We the people of New Mexico are opposed to the development of data centers without proper oversight or representation. Project Jupiter must not continue for concerns over environmental damage and community wellness. Additionally, the influx of ai-generated comments in support of oracle's push to move forward with project Jupiter, should make it apparent that this project is largely unpopular among actual residents of New Mexico