

Todd Ferguson

It is ludicrous that anyone is even considering allowing the construction of such a stupid project. Using water in the desert for something nobody wants is insane. Do your jobs and serve the interests and needs of your community. Stop bending to the will of the ultra rich to destroy the environment in order to line your pockets and further enrich the people who will be responsible for the catastrophes we are hurtling ever closer to.