

Dominic Chiri

New Mexico does not want this data center. We do not want billionaires in California making money on the backs of New Mexicans. The Rio Grande is the driest it has ever been, a data center will bankrupt our economy after ten years and diminish all of our water resources. I expect if Project Jupiter goes forward, New Mexicans will leave.