

Edana Otero

Changing the proposal doesn't change the risk. We do not want data centers. We want clean water and clean air. We need to protect our land and our people, not make the rich, richer. Stop Project Jupiter and keep data centers out. Protect our land, our communities and our future generations.