

Anonymous Anonymous

The damage data centers are putting on the earth are blatant. Droughts, contaminated water, wasted space for something better. We the people of the USA not only reject but denounce the idea of data centers. To build one as large as this could mean a fast track to the end of our NATURAL lives. Creating something entirely artificial. You can see the repercussions of not listening to what the planet needs, and we can all see the repercussions of these data centers. Do the right thing.