

Sydney Chamberlain

Allowing data centers to flourish is allowing the extinction of life. Project Jupiter needs to be stopped for the future of our environment and our children who live within it. This is not sustainable and we will all suffer in the future. We cannot drink money.