

Logan Nunn

This permit being granted will allow carbon emissions equal to or greater than two of New Mexico's largest city's yearly output combined into our local atmosphere. It is criminally irresponsible to consider any of the environmental impacts that this project will have on the local community as anything other than an absolute tragedy. This project and many others like it will be our undoing if we don't stop it now. Reject the permit.