

Nora Nezar

The data center proposal will be devastating to the community and the beautiful land of New Mexico. The people of our community need water, not data centers.