

SARAH DZIEWECZYNSKI

I do not believe this permit should be granted. We are in a time of declared drought - a disaster. There is not enough water and resources to grow our food and maintain livestock. These things are essential to our life. This project is not.