

Anonymous Anonymous

This is extremely harmful to our air quality and environment. Our future is important and saving it one step at a time is important. Each step taken can save our planet from permanent harm and save our future generations from living on an unsustainable planet. This permit needs to be denied in order for our air quality to continue to be stable enough to be able to breathe without worry and without breathing in harmful chemicals and toxins to both animals and humans.