

Dhyana Martinez

Community members have been denied the fair opportunity to properly participate in the discussions. The air quality permit should be denied for the protection of New Mexico.