

Sharon Eldridge

I am urging the NMED to deny developers this air quality permit that is in association with the Project Jupiter AI center. The majority of the American people are opposed to these AI centers and will ONLY benefit the developers and the billionaires PERIOD! New Mexico does not have the resources to run these centers which take huge amounts of water and cooling ability. Have you looked at the Rio Grande lately!