

Alea Morse

We can live without Ai. But not without water, nature, or even earth. All this is doing is speeding up the end of our lives If this continues we might not even have a next generation to look forward too. And all of this is just to put more money in your pockets? Pathetic. This needs to be stopped before our life's are stopped fist.